New service boosts line's West African offer

This week, CMA CGM is to launch its new Wazzan service (linking Morocco and North-West Africa) and designed to improve its intra-African coverage.

Wazzan, said the line:

- * Improves its transit time between Mauritania, Senegal and Morocco by eight days. The previous transshipment calls being replaced by direct ones;
- * Introduces a new direct call, from North West Africa and to Morocco, in Las Palmas; and
- * Develops its reefer container offer in Nouadhibou, Mauritania, allowing fish exports to intra-African and worldwide markets.

This weekly service, complementary to the six EurAf ones (serving West Africa and Europe) will deploy three 1 100 TEU vessels on the port rotation: Casablanca, Algeciras, Tangiers, Nouakchott, Dakar, Nouadhibou, Las Palmas, Casablanca.

The first rotation will start from Casablanca, with the MV Delmas Swala, on June 6.
