TFR fraud case complicates rate decisions

Transnet Freight Rail (TFR) executive Bheka Xaba has been suspended for more than a year as a criminal case of fraud and corruption against him is investigated.

“This is not new,” a source told FTW following a recent article in a Sunday newspaper that Xaba had appeared in the Pretoria Commercial Crimes court on charges of fraud and corruption.

TFR is, however, remaining mum on the suspension of Xaba, who was widely acknowledged as one of the parastatal’s up and coming top executives.
